Numb. 3808

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 30 to Monday May 4. 1702.

S*T. James's, May* 2. The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Lichfield and Coventry.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, our Sovereign Lady ANNE, by the Grace of God, Queen of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Derby, do humbly beg Leave to Condole with Your Majeſty the great Loſs of our late Sovereign Lord King William, of glorious Memory, and at the ſame time with all Thankfulneſs to adore the Divine Providence, that hath been graciouſly pleas'd to preſerve Your Majeſty till this day, in Mercy to the Reformed Churches, and particularly to the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and to place your Sacred Perſon upon the Throne of your Mighty Anceſtors.

Your Majeſties unparaleld Bounty to your Subjects in your late Royal Gift, your Gracious Declaration of Preſerving our Legal Settlements in Church and State, your Royal Proclamation for the Encouragement of true Religion and Virtue, and for the Suppreſſing of Vice and Immorality; Theſe are ſuch Glorious Beams of Goodneſs and Piety ſtreaming from your Royal Heart, as raiſe in us great Expectations from ſo Good and Gracious a Princeſs.

We do therefore humbly beg Your Majeſty to believe, That in our ſeveral Places and Stations we ſhall daily offer up to God, by whom Kings and Queens reign, our Sacrifice of Prayer for the Preſervation of your Sacred Perſon from all Dangers, and the Eſtabliſhment of your Throne againſt all Pretenders and Oppoſers whatſoever; and that he would continue Your Majeſty a Nurſing-Mother to our Church, that he would make your Reign long and proſperous, and ſo direct your Councils and proſper your Armies and Allies, that You may overcome all your Enemies, and afterwards crown your Sacred Perſon with Crowns of Immortal Life and Glory.

The following Addreſſes from the Counties of Denbigh and Montgomery were preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Joſeph Jekyll, Chief Juſtice of Cheſter.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Juſtices of the Peace, of the County of Denbigh, at Her Majeſties great Seſſions held at Wrexham for the ſaid County, upon Friday (to wit) the Tenth day of April, in the Firſt Year of Her Majeſties Reign, Anno Domini 1702.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg leave to congratulate Your Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, which alone could Support us, under the deep Senſe of the Nation's Loſs, by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William the Third, of Bleſſed Memory.

The Experienced Zeal of Your Majeſty for the Eſtabliſhed Religion, Laws and Liberties of your Country, gives us a full Aſſurance in your Protection and Defence of them, and we humbly acknowledge your Generous Bounty to your Subjects, and beg the Liberty to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will, with unſhaken Loyalty, adhere to and defend Your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, Crown and Dignity, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, as by Law eſtabliſhed, againſt all your Enemies whatſoever.

And will, by a Chearful Submiſſion and Obedience to Your Majeſties Legal and Rightful Authority, (ſo far as in us lies) aſſiſt Your Majeſty in the Supporting your Alliances, for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, and abating the Exceſſive Power of France, and whatever elſe may conduce to the making Your Majeſties Reign over us Glorious and Happy.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſties moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Freeholders, aſſembled together at the Great Seſſions held for Your Majeſties County of Montgomery, at the Town of Poole in the County aforeſaid, the 16th day of April, in the Firſt year of Your Majeſties Reign.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

NO ſooner were we (with the reſt of our fellow Subjects) almoſt overwhelmed with Grief at the amazing News of the Loſs of our late Glorious Monarch King William III. of ever bleſſed Memory, but that Divine Providence was pleaſed to wipe all Tears from our Eyes, by placing Your Majeſty on the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors: We unfeignedly Congratulate the ſame, with the Aſſurances of an immutable Fidelity to your Sacred Perſon, Title and Government, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, his Abettors, and all your Enemies whatſoever.

That Your Majeſty may enjoy an uninterrupted State of Health, thereby a long and proſperous Reign over us, and that no Deſign formed againſt your Perſon or Government proſper, is our hearty Prayer.

In Teſtimony whereof, we Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, hereunto ſet our Hands.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Aldborough in the County of Suffolk was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Henry Johnſon and William Johnſon Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen, of the ancient Borough of Aldborough in the County of Suffolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE great Loſs which we have ſuſtained by the Death of the Heroick and moſt Renowned King William III. (our late Deliverer) of ever bleſſed Memory, could not but affect our Minds with a Grief ſuitable to ſo great and unſpeakable a Misfortune, and oblige us humbly to beg leave to Condole with Your Majeſty upon that unhappy Occaſion, and at the ſame time to aſſure you, That nothing could ſo fully and entirely have aſperſed our Fears, and alleviated our Sorrows proceeding therefrom, as Your moſt Sacred Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crowns of theſe Kingdoms; from whoſe moſt Gracious Government and Protection, we are ſure to receive whatever is good and beneficial to us, which obliges us in Gratitude, as well as in a deep Senſe of our Duty, moſt humbly to join with the reſt of your Loyal and dutiful Subjects, in our hearty and ſincere Congratulations of Your moſt Sacred Majeſty upon your quiet Poſſeſſion of the Thrones of your Royal Anceſtors.

And (as becomes Faithful Subjects) we moſt humbly beg leave further to aſſure Your Majeſty, That nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts that may contribute to the Security and Happineſs of Your Majeſties moſt Royal Perſon, and Preſervation of your Government; and that we are willing and ready to ſacrifice whatſoever is dear and valuable to us in defence thereof, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and the Power of the French King, and all other Invaders of Your Majeſties moſt undoubted Right, and your open and ſecret Enemies. And may the Bleſſings of the Divine Providence make your Life and Reign long and happy.

Given under our Common Seal the 10th day of April, in the Firſt year of Your Majeſties Reign. Annoq; Domini 1702.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Great Marlow was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir James Etheridge and James Chaſe Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; and by George Bruer Eſq;

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Great Marlow in the County of Bucks, At a Court-Leet and Court Baron there held on Your Majeſties Coronation-day, in the Firſt Year of Your Majeſties Reign.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly crave leave to Congratulate Your Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Throne, which alone could repair that Loſs the Nation has ſuſtained by the Death of our late Sovereign King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, and to offer our moſt Hearty Thanks for the tender Affection Your Majeſty has been pleas'd to expreſs for the Eaſe of your People under their great (tho' no more than neceſſary) Taxes, and the Gracious Aſſurances of Support you have vouchſafed to the Church and Conſtitution of England, which to us are undeniable Proofs, that your Royal Heart is Entirely Engliſh. We do, with all Humility, aſſure Your Majeſty of our conſtant and ſincere Loyalty to your Perſon and Government, and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, endeavour to maintain Your Majeſties Right and Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other your Enemies whatſoever.

That Your Majeſty may long continue a Bleſſing to theſe Nations, in a happy and proſperous Reign over us, and be a joyful Mother of Children to Rule our poſterity, as long as Ages laſt, is the fervent and hearty Prayer of Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Arundell was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Cooke Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the High and Mighty Princeſs Anne, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and the reſt of the Inhabitants, of your ancient Borough of Arundell in the County of Suſſex.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough, preſume, with the reſt of your good Subjects, heartily to Congratulate Your Majeſties Acceſſion to the Throne, as the Rightful, Legal and Worthy Succeſſor of our late Glorious Deliverer and Sovereign, of Immortal Memory; not doubting, but that as the Princeſs of Denmark ran the ſame Riſk, embarked on the ſame bottom, and eſpouſed the ſame Noble Cauſe of Religion and Civil Liberty with the Prince of Orange; ſo Queen Anne will equal, if not exceed, King William, by Governing theſe mighty Nations (together with the Intereſt of the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſhed) at home in Wealth and Peace, and by extending their Renown abroad, in making England the Support of the Ballance of Europe, as well as the Head and Protector of the Proteſtant Intereſt over the whole World.

We cannot enough expreſs our Thankfulneſs for Your Majeſties Gracious Speech and Declaration, your Reſolution to maintain the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, and the unparalell'd retrenching of your own Perſonal Expences, which is both an Eaſe to your People, as alſo an Example of Frugality to the Nation at this Juncture, when all Men's Purſes ought to be as ready as their Hands and Councils to promote the Common Cauſe,

That God Almighty may proſper your Generous Deſigns with anſwerable Succeſs, prolong your precious Life, and make the Benefits of your Reign as laſting as your Fame in theſe Kingdoms, ſhall be our unfeigned and continual Prayers, &c.

The

The following Addreſs from the County of Salop was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, at the Quarter Seſſions held at Salop the 14th day of April, 1702. for the County of Salop.

May it pleaſe Your Royal Majeſty,

WHen we think of the great Loſs of our late Gracious Sovereign King William, our Hearts are filled with a deep Senſe of Sorrow; but when we conſider that Your Majeſty ſucceeds upon the Royal Throne, this Thought both eaſes our Grief, and turns our Mourning into Rejoycing. We preſume therefore to Congratulate Your Excellent Majeſty on this Occaſion, and return you our humble Thanks for the Gracious Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give your People, by your Declaration in Council, and from the Throne.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will, in our ſeveral Stations, behave our ſelves with unfeigned Loyalty and Fidelity towards Your Majeſty and Your Government, and will defend your undoubted Title againſt the Power of France, and all Pretenders whatſoever; and always uſe our beſt Endeavours to preſerve the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

May that Almighty Power, by whom Kings and Queens Govern, protect your Royal Perſon, grant you a long, peaceable and proſperous Reign; and we wiſh we may never want a Royal Iſſue from your Loins to ſway the Engliſh Scepter.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Morpeth was preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Freemen, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants, of the Right Honourable the Earl of Carliſle's ancient Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE cannot look back upon thoſe great Things which were done by our late Sovereign Lord King William III. of Glorious Memory, in Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, but we muſt be under the deepeſt Sorrow and Affliction at his Death, and with Your Majeſty and the whole Nation ſincerely and heartily Condole ſo great a Loſs.

A Loſs which nothing could have mitigated, nothing could have made ſupportable to us, if Divine Providence had not filled the Throne with ſo Excellent a Succeſſor as Your moſt Sacred Majeſty; whoſe Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, we do, with unfeigned Duty and Affection, Congratulate and Rejoyce in, not only as it is your undoubted Right, but as Your Majeſty is adorned with all thoſe Graces and Endowments, which (if we had wanted the Royal and repeated Aſſurances which Your Majeſty has lately given to your People) are ſufficient to convince us, That the Conſtitution both in Church and State, and every Subject of your own in particular, as well as all Europe in general, will be ſafe and happy under the bleſſed Influence of Your Majeſties [illegible]

Having our Hearts thus filled with a juſt Senſe of our preſent, we beſeech Almighty God that Your Majeſties Reign over us may be long and proſperous; and humbly crave leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That during the whole Courſe of it, we ſhall, (as becomes Dutiful and Loyal Subjects) with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, Support and Defend your Royal Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, againſt the French King, the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your other Enemies and Oppoſers whatſoever. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto ſet our Hands, the 13th day of April, in the Firſt year of Your Majeſties Reign.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Great Bedwin was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bayliff, Burgeſſes, and other Principal Inhabitants of Your Majeſties ancient Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, from a deep Senſe of our unſpeakable Happineſs do preſume to Congratulate Your Majeſties rightful Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, whereby our great Misfortune in the Death of the late King (of glorious Memory) is happily repaired.

We humbly beſeech your Sacred Majeſty graciouſly to accept our moſt grateful Acknowledgements of your repeated Aſſurances of Supporting and Maintaining our happily conſtituted Government in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed, from whence we juſtly promiſe our ſelves all imaginable Felicity under Your Majeſties moſt Auſpicious Reign, which we pray God may be long and proſperous.

And we humbly crave Permiſſion, with all poſſible Sincerity, to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will upon all occaſions (according to our indiſpenſable Duty) faithfully and inviolably adhere to our Fidelity and Allegiance to Your Majeſty, and endeavour to the utmoſt Extent of our Power, to Defend the preſent Eſtabliſhment and Conſtitution againſt all the Enemies and Oppoſers of your Royal Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by his Exceſſency the Earl of Rocheſter, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the Queen's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſes of Down and Connor.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do humbly crave leave to Condole with Your Majeſty the Death of our late Glorious Sovereign, whoſe Memory muſt be always precious, eſpecially to us of this Kingdom, as the great Inſtrument, under God, of our late Deliverance.

We ſhould have apprehended the greateſt Confuſion muſt have followed ſo ſevere a Loſs, had not God, in his infinite Mercy to us, preſerved Your Majeſty, and given you a peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, to the univerſal Satisfaction of your People.

And on this happy Occaſion we think it our Duty to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport your Lawful and Rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms, againſt the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Oppoſers.

We preſume to give Your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the Declarations you have been graciouſly pleaſed to make, to ſupport the Alliances already enter'd into againſt the Common Enemy of Europe, and to maintain the Conſtitutions in Church and State as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

We beſeech Almighty God to give Your Majeſty a happy and proſperous Reign over us, to continue long to his Church the Benefit of your pious Example, and to preſerve you always under the Protection of his good Providence.

The following Addreſſes were likewiſe preſented to Her Majeſty by his Excellency the Earl of Rocheſter, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Dublin, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Kilmainham, in and for the ſaid County, the 16th day of April, 1702.

An humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and principal Proteſtant Inhabitants, of the County Palatine of Tipperary, at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County in the Town of Clonmell, on Thurſday the 9th day of April, 1702.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Kildare, at a General Aſſizes held at Naas the 6th day of April, 1702.

An humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bayliffs, Free Burgeſſes, and Commons of the Corporation of Clonmell in the County Palatine of Tipperary.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

The Addreſs of the County of Cumberland, printed in the laſt Gazette, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Edward Haſſel and George Fletcher Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carliſle, Earl Marſhal of England, and Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

The Addreſs of the County of Weſtmorland, inſerted in the laſt Gazette, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Richard Sandford Bar. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Carliſle, Earl Marſhal of England, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

Warſaw, April 23. We have received an Account, That the King of Sweden arrived yeſterday at Grodno, and would there give Audience, this day, to the Ambaſſadors of the Republick of Poland. In the mean time his Forces march towards this Place, and raiſe great Contributions in the Country through which they paſs, laying great Taxes particularly upon the Convents of Jeſuits, and other Monaſteries. And by our laſt Advices, the Swediſh Van-Guard was advanced to Biala, a Town belonging to Prince Radzivill, about 28 Leagues from hence. The Muſcovite Ambaſſador had Publick Audience of the King of Poland 2 days ago in the Preſence of the Senators who are in Town, and 'tis ſaid he propoſed, That if the Republick would join in the War againſt Sweden, the Czar, his Maſter, would not only aſſiſt them with a conſiderable Sum of Money, but would reſtore to them Smolensko, Kiow, and ſome other Places which formerly belonged to the Crown of Poland; But there appears little Diſpoſition in the Polanders to embrace theſe Offers. The King of Poland's Summons to the Nobility, to mount on Horſeback for the Defence of the Country, have not yet been obeyed. The Cardinal Primate continues in the Country; The King ſent to deſire his Advice in this difficult Juncture, but he has excuſed himſelf from being concerned in Publick Affairs. The Senators and other Perſons of Quality in Town have ſent away their beſt Effects, and prepare to retire from hence; And 'tis ſaid, the King himſelf intends to leave this Place very ſuddenly, and to go to Cracow; and his Guards have Orders to be in a readineſs to attend him. The Office of Crown General is not yet diſpoſed of, and 'tis now the general Diſcourſe, That it will be given to Monſieur Lubomirsky, the Crown Treaſurer.

Vienna, April 26. The King of the Romans continues his Reſolution of going, in the beginning of the next Month, to head the Imperial Army on the Rhine. The States of the Kingdom of Bohemia have reſolved to make him a Preſent of 100000 Dollars upon this Occaſion; and 'tis expected, that this Example will be followed by the reſt of the Emperors Dominions. The Emperor has appointed Young Count Jorger to go into England, to make the Compliments of Condolence and Congratulation, in his Name, to Her Majeſty of Great Britain; and he intends to ſet out on his Journey thither [illegible] 12 days. The Marſhal de Villeroy is removed from [illegible] Gratz in Styria, where he is to remain a Priſoner till his Ranſo be agreed upon.

Francfort, May 4. The Imperial Army, commanded Prince Lewis of Baden, is ſtill encamped near Langenl[illegible]

He has ſent out a Detachment to reinforce the German Troops poſted at Weiſſemburgh and Lauterburgh, and another to take poſſeſſion of Amweyler; The Germans have alſo ſecured ſeveral other Poſts about Landau, ſo that the place is in a manner blocked up; and the German Horſe have conſumed the Forage in the Country about it. Monſieur Melac, the Governor of Landau, has ſent Orders to the neighbouring Villages, to bring in thither their Proviſions, their Cattel, and other Effects, but they chooſe rather to ſend them to Philipsburgh, Spire, and other places that are without the French Lines. Marſhal Catinat is come to Haguenau, where he has got together 6 Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons, and as many of Foot, which make about 7000 Men, and he expects to be joyned in a ſhort time by more French Forces from the Country of Metz. We hear, the French are making a Bridge over the Rhine at Huningen, in order, as is ſuppoſed, to give a Jealouſy to the Circles of Swabia and Franconia, and by that means to make a Divertion of their Troops.

Weſel, May 5. The Deputies of the States General, who were ſent hither to compliment the King of Pruſſia, parted from hence yeſterday very well ſatisfied with their Reception, and were each of them preſented by the King with a Purſe of Medals to the Value of 1000 Crowns. We have an Account from the Camp before Keyſerſwaert, That the 2d Inſtant at night 200 Men ſallied out of the Town againſt the Forces of Pruſſia, but were vigorouſly repulſed with the Loſs of a Captain, and 2 Lieutenants, and about 20 Soldiers were killed and wounded, and as many taken Priſoners; on our ſide a Colonel, and ſome Soldiers were wounded, and a Captain killed. Yeſterday our Forces attacked a large Redoubt called the Kruitberg Fort, which covered the Counterſcarp, and carried it without meeting with any great Oppoſition, the French retiring after their firſt Diſcharge, which did our Men no other Miſchief, than the wounding of an Enſign and 5 or 6 Soldiers. The French Forces which were entred into the Town of Burick marched from thence yeſterday, and took from the Inhabitants divers Horſes, and ſome Proviſions. We hear, Count Tallard, who was marching with a Body of about 6000 Men, and a Train of Artillery, to poſt himſelf near the Rhine over-againſt Keyſerſwaert, is countermanded, and turns his March towards Dalem, with a Deſign, as is beleived, to bombard Juliers. Marſhal Bouffiers's Army continues encamped near Santen; and we hear, the Earl of Athlone is ſtill at Clarenbeck with the Forces of the Allies under his Command.

Cologne, May 5. The French Forces which lay near Bon, to the number of about 3 or 4000 Men, marched from thence two days ago towards Nuys and Ordingen, where its ſaid Count Tallard has got together a Body of 6000 Men, and expects more Forces, intending to Bombard Duſſeldorp or Juliers. A Hundred French Deſerters came Yeſterday to this place and to Mulheim, and two parties of the Dutch and Pruſſian Horſe that are encamped near that Town, which were ſent out towards Bon, came home at the ſame time with 70 Priſoners. A Battalion of Pruſſian Foot, and 3 Companies of Granadiers, marched from hence this day towards the Camp of the Allies before Keyſerſwaert. We hear, the Troops of Hanover and Cell are marching to joyn the Forces of the Allies on the Lower Rhine. Letters from the Upper Rhine give an account, That Marſhal Catinat was arrived a Haguenau, but had not yet got together above 7 or 8000 Men; That the Imperial Army under Prince Lewis of Baden increaſes daily, by the coming up of more of the Imperial Forces, and of thoſe of the Circles, and that they had blocked up the Town of Landau, but it was believed they would not form the Siege of that Place before the Arrival of the King of the Romans, who intends to depart from Vienna about the 10th of this Month.

Hamburgh, May 5. Letters from Warſaw ſay, the Court there is very much alarmed at the Motions of the Swediſh Forces, which continue their March towards that Place. Moſt of the Nobility of Poland are retired from thence, ſome to their Country Houſes, and others, as is believed, are gone to meet the King of Sweden. The Heer Cranenbourg, Envoy of the States General, who is now at Riga, having received freſh Orders from the States to offer their Mediation for a Peace between the Crowns of Sweden and Poland, and the Czar of Muſcovy, has deſired Audience of the King of Sweden, but has not yet obtained it. The Advices from Lithuania confirm the Defeat of a Body of the Forces of that Dutchy under the Command of Prince Wiſniowitzky by a Detachment of the Swediſh Army; but ſay the Prince had made his Eſcape. Yeſterday being the Day appointed for the Coronation of Her Majeſty of Great Britain, the Engliſh Merchants here made a great Entertainment in the Houſe belonging to the Company; to which the Foreign Miniſters and principal Inhabitants of this City were invited; and in the evening the Company were entertained with an Opera, and they had Illuminations, and gave other publick Demonſtrations of Joy ſuitable to the great Occaſion.

Hague, May 9. An Expreſs arrived here the 6th Inſtant from the Earl of Athlone, giving an Account, That the Duke of Burgundy, with a Body of French Forces, had joined Marſhal Bouffiers's Army; upon which the Battalions deſigned to ſerve on board the Dutch Fleet were ordered to march forthwith to join the Earl of Athlone; the like Orders were diſpatched to divers Battalions which lay in Zealand, and the Battalion of Dutch Guards quartered in this Place marched from hence this day for the ſame purpoſe. An Expreſs is ſent to Caſſell, to haſten the March of the Forces the Landgrave of Heſſe is to furniſh, which amount to 9000 Men, and 9 or 10000 more are expected from Hanover and Cell, which it is reported the Elector of Hanover deſigns to command in Perſon. Our Advices from Flanders ſay, Count Coehoorn had poſſeſſed himſelf of Middlebourg, a ſmall Town with a pretty ſtrong Caſtle, which lies in the way to Oſtend; but what he deſigns further is not yet known. The Siege of Keyſerſwaert has been delayed by the overflowing of the Rhine, occaſioned by the late Rains; but the Weather having been fair for ſome days, 'tis hoped the Allies will ſoon be Maſters of that Place: According to the laſt Accounts, they had taken a large Redoubt that covered the Counterſcarp, and were preparing to make a General Aſſault upon the Counterſcarp.

The late King's Will was opened yeſterday in the Preſence of Mr. Stanhope, Envoy Extraordinary of Her Majeſty of Great Britain, Monſieur Schmettau, Envoy of the King of Pruſſia, the Agents of the Princes of Friſe, Anhalt, Naſſau Siegen, and the Duke of Saxe Eyſenac, with ſeveral of the Members of the Council of State, and ſome Commiſſioners appointed by the Court of Juſtice of Holland: His Majeſty has therein appointed the Prince of Friſe to be his Univerſal Heir, and he has thereupon taken the Title of Prince of Orange. The Baron Lier, one of the Ambaſſadors appointed by the States General to make the Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation to Her Majeſty, embarked yeſterday for England; and the other two Ambaſſadors intend to follow in a ſhort time, ſtaying only for their Equipage.

Paris, May 10. A Declaration has been publiſhed here, exempting the Subjects of Lorrain from the Law, by which the Eſtates of Foreigners that die in the Fr. King's Dominions without being Naturalized, are to fall to the Crown; a like Privilege being granted by the Duke of Lorrain to the Subjects of France. The Republick of Venice has appointed the Sieur Piſani, who at preſent reſides here as their Ambaſſador, and the Sieur Erizzo, formerly their Ambaſſador at the Courts of Spain and Rome, to go with the Characters of their Ambaſſadors Extraordinary to the Queen of England, to Condole with Her Majeſty in the Name of the Republick upon the Death of the late King, and to Congratulate Her Majeſty's Succeſſion to the Crown. Letters from Rochfort ſay, the Sieur Marin, Commander of the Ship La Loire, one of Count Chateaurenaut's Squadron, was returned thither; he has been as far as Vera Cruz, where he left the Spaniſh Galeons; and when he parted from the ſaid Squadron, 3 of their Ships had been ſeparated from them in bad Weather, which had not yet been heard of. Letters from San Nazaro of the firſt Inſtant ſay, the French Forces quartered about that Place were to march the next day, in order to paſs the Po at Cremona; and that the Duke de Vendoſme intended to draw together what Forces he could in the Cremoneze, in order as was ſaid to attempt the Relief of Mantua; but that Prince Eugene had taken ſuch good Meaſures, that it would be very difficult for the French to ſucceed in this Deſign. Our Advices from the Low Countries bring an Account, that the Allies puſh on vigorouſly the Siege of Keyſerſwaert, and we give that Place over for loſt.

Mancheſter, April 23. The Coronation of Her Sacred Majeſty Queen Anne (whoſe happy Acceſſion to the Crown had been here early Proclaimed, with all the Demonſtrations of Rejoycing and Thankfulneſs) was this day here ſolemnly obſerved with the utmoſt Expreſſions of Gratitude to God, and Loyalty to the Queen. About Ten in the Forenoon, the Clergy, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Town, repaired to the Collegiate Church, where, after Divine Service, and a Sermon Preached on the Occaſion, by Dr. Wroe, Warden of the College, they marched in Solemn Order, with Halberds, and Muſick playing before them, to the Croſs, which was fairly beautified and adorned with rich Garlands, and thence continued the Proceſſion to the Conduit, which was no leſs Magnificently ſet out; where being regularly placed, and incircled with Halberdiers, and the young Gentlemen of the Town, who had formed themſelves into a Troop for the Solemnity, together with about 140 other young Men drawn up into a Company, each with white Wands in their Hands, with Trumpet, Kettle-Drum, and Drums; the Conduit plentifully ſupplied them with Wine to drink Her Majeſties Health, with thoſe of the Royal Family, with loyal Huzza's, and all decent Expreſſions of Thankfulneſs, the Muſick all the while playing, the Bells ringing, and the People expreſſing all imaginable Satisfaction and Zeal to Her Majeſties Perſon and Government; and concluding the Solemnity of the Day with Volleys of Shot, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Expreſſions of Rejoycing and Loyalty.

Leeds in Yorkſhire, April 23. This being the day of Her Majeſties Coronation, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of this Borough, in their Formalities, accompanied by divers of the neighbouring Gentlemen men, and such of Her Majesties Officers as were quartered in the Town, went in the Morning to the old Church, where a Sermon was preached suitable to the Occation; after which the Company were entertained by the Corporation; they drank Her Majesties Health, Victory and Success to Her Allies, and concluded the day with Musick, ringing of Bells, Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Coventry, April 23. This day being appointed for the Queen's Coronation, about Three in the Afternoon the Mayor and Aldermen in Scarlet, Council-House Men in their Gowns, Gentlemen, Clergymen, and the Ten Companies in their Formalities, with each Company's Streamer, regularly walked from St. Mary's-Hall through the principal Streets of this City to the Mayor's Parlour, where the Corporation entertained the Company, and the Queen's Health was drank; part of Colonel Rosse's Dragoons were drawn up near the Cross, who gave several Vollies; the Drums beat, the Trumpets sounded; and in all Parts of the City there were general Acclamations of Joy suitable to the Occasion; and the Night concluded with ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and Illuminations.

Salop, April 23. This day being Her Majesties Coronation day, the Mayor, attended by the Aldermen in their Scarlet Robes, and the Assistants and Wardens of the several Companies, with their Colours, Streamers, Drums and Trumpets, and by the High Sheriff and Gentlemen of the best Quality, went to St. Chadd's Church, where a Sermon (by order of the Corporation) was preached upon the Occation; and afterwards the several Inhabitants of the Corporation dined in the Streets very splendidly, the Mayor, High Sheriff, with several Gentlemen, visiting the several Tables, and drinking Queen Anne's Health: After which Mr. Mayor went to the Guildhall, where the Gentlemen were splendidly Entertained at the Corporation Charge; the night ending, with Bonfires, Bells ringing, &c. and such like Demonstrations of Joy, as has not been known in these Parts.

Cheadly in the Isle of Anglesey, April 24. Yesterday being the Coronation of our most Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne, the Towns and Villages hereabouts having made Preparation to Celebrate it with the greatest Solemnity they could, Mr. Richard Gauden and Mr. Nathaniel Arderne, Stewards to the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bulkeley, being desirous that his Lordships Tenants in the Manor of Cheadley should in like manner demonstrate their Duty and Loyalty, provided a large Banner, which was displayed 8 or 9 Yards above the Steeple of the Church, and is to continue there; A Conduit ran with strong Ale for several Hours together, whilst 80 of the Inhabitants with their Fire-Arms made several Volleys in very good Order, and handsome Fire-works were showed upon the Steeple, particularly at the drinking the Health of Her Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark, and Prosperity to the Church of England: In all the Performance there appeared the most hearty Marks of an Universal Joy and Satisfaction that could possibly be.

Pembroke, April 24. Yesterday being Her Majesty's Coronation day, was observed here with as much Pomp as was possible, by ringing of Bells, making Bonfires and Illuminations, and drinking Her Majesty's Health and Prosperity.

Great Yarmouth, April 24. Yesterday being the time appointed for Her Majesties Coronation, was observed here with all the Solemnity suitable to so joyful an Occasion; The morning was ushered in with Bells ringing, the Bayliffs and Aldermen appeared at Church in their Scarlet, attended by the Common-Council-Men, and near 100 Young Gentlemen in Arms, from whence they went in Procession to see the Great Guns fired, and then were splendidly entertained at the Bayliffs at Dinner, where they drank the Queen's Health, and in the evening appeared at the Market-Cross, where Wine and Ale was distributed for the Poor to partake of the Joy of so great a Solemnity, and the evening concluded with a general Illumination and Bonfires.

Colchester, April 24. Yesterday, on the Occasion of Her Majesties Inauguration, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council, with divers Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjacent, met at the Moothall, whence they went to the Exchange in the Great Piazza, where, at the Discharge of several Cannon there placed, Her Majesty's and His Royal Highness Prince George's Healths were drank, with the Drums beating, Musick sounding, and Bells ringing: Thence the Cavalcade passed through the principal part of the Town, (which, as were most other Streets, was adorned with White Bays, Colours, Pendants, Garlands, Carpets, &c.) and returned to the Moothall, where, at the Charge of the Corporation, was ready for them a Generous Treat, and Her Majesty's and Prince George's Health, and the Weal Publick there again heartily wished. A great Concourse of People more than ordinary appeared in the Streets, with loud Acclamations and chearful Countenances on this happy Occasion, with Bonfires, Bells ringing, and a universal Demonstration of Joy.

Derby, April 25. Thursday last being the happy Day of Her Majesties Coronation, was here Solemnized with the highest Demonstrations of Joy, that ever were shewn in this place: Thomas Carter Esq; the Mayor, at his own Charge, caused an Ox to be roasted whole at the Market Cross; two Tables were made (with Booths over them) the whole length of the Market place, where a noble Entertainment was provided. All the Gentlemen of the Town, and some of the Country, to the number of 500 Persons, came in to the Entertainment, and the Queen's Health was often drank. At Night the Multitude of Bonfires, and Illuminations, the Ringing, Musick, Dancing, and other Rejoycings, lengthen'd the Brightness and Chearfulness of the Day.

Chester, April 25. The 23d Instant, being the day of Her Majesty's Coronation, was observed here with great Solemnity; The Mayor, Recorder, and Justices of the Peace, in their Scarlet Gowns, and the Sheriffs and Aldermen, with the Sword and Mace, and Officers attending them, met at the Pentice, (the 24 Companies of the City being up in their Formalities, with an extraordinary Concourse of Gentry from the Country hereabout) where Her Majesty's Health was drunk, the Great Guns from our Castle firing, with Vollies of small Shot, the City-Waits playing, the Bells ringing, the Conduit running with Wine for several hours together, and so concluded the evening with Bonfires, Illuminations, Garlands, and all other Demonstrations of Joy suitable to so great an Occasion.
